

Garden Hunt

Look in the garden for answers to the following clues:

Clue	Answer
1. This hedge provides the street name for the Dursley family. ( Harry Potter by J.K.Rowling)
2. This is what Eeyore eats. ( Winnie-the Pooh by A.A.Milne)
3. The main character, who is missing a little toe, is named for this flower ( Everything on a Waffle by Polly Horvath)
4. Miss Rumphius sows the seeds for this flower as her contribution to the world. ( Miss Rumphius by Barbara Cooney)
5. This flower is the name of a young mouse. During the first week of school, other students make fun of her name, until they learn that the art teacher also has a flower name. ( Chrysanthemum by Kevin Henkes)	(two answers)
6. A wicked witch used this flower to put Dorothy and her friends to sleep. ( The Wizard of Oz by L. Frank Baum)
7. In The Secret Garden (Frances Hodges Burnett), Mary, Dickon, and Colin found these woody, flowering plants.
8. Klara's grandmother gives her seeds for this "beautiful blue flower" to take with her to America in Klara's New World (by Jeanette Winter)
9. In the alphabet book, Alison's Zinnia , Florence finds a flower beginning with "F" to give to Gloria. (Anita Lobel)
10. The main character in this year's Vermont Reads book, As Long as There are Mountains , is named for a flower.

[illegible]