

LAKE CHAMPLAIN RESEARCH CONSORTIUM

DESIGN OUR NEW LOGO CONTEST

TERMS & CONDITIONS

CONTEST

The contest is to design a new logo for the Lake Champlain Research Consortium to be used in a variety of marketing and general business mediums.

Entrants will be judged on how well their designs reflect the LCRC's mission statement as described on the organization's website at <http://academics.smcvt.edu/lcrc/>

PARTICIPATION

The contest is open to all students currently enrolled at any of the LCRC's member institutions: Castleton State College, Green Mountain College, Johnson State College, Middlebury College, Saint Michael's College, State University of New York-Plattsburgh and University of Vermont.

There is no limit to the number of entries that may be submitted per person, but there must be a completed application form for each entry.

COPYRIGHT

The logo must be your original work; however collaborative efforts are accepted as long as all persons involved in creating the design are students from a member institution.

By participating, you agree to give full copyright for your design to the Lake Champlain Research Consortium. We decline any responsibility for misuse of the image.

We will retain the right to pass the winning design to a third party for preparation to artwork stage, amendment and further use.

You must also certify that the logo does not infringe the rights of any third party and that it does not violate any copyright. Imitation or insertion of copyrighted images is not allowed.

PRIZE

There will be one winning entry with a prize of $250.00.

CONTEST DATES

Submissions must be received by 4pm on Friday, October 2, 2009.

SUBMISSION OF ENTRY

Entries must be submitted electronically as a PDF, scanned or computer generated image to the Lake Champlain Research Consortium at lcrc@smcvt.edu

An application form must accompany each entry.

The logo design can be conceptual and does not need to be camera-ready.

Entries will not be returned.

JUDGING

All entries will be judged based on design originality and the ability to convey the mission statement of the LCRC organization by a panel consisting of the executive director, program administrator and members of the board of directors.

The decision of the panel will be final.

PUBLICITY

The participant(s) with the winning entry will agree to have their photographs and/or details published on the Lake Champlain Research Consortium website, organizational publications and in local press.
