

The Importance of Being Geographic
A cross-curricular professional development institute for Vermont educators

July 26-30 2010
Castleton State College

NAME: _____

SCHOOL: _____

POSITION _____ GRADE LEVEL _____

Years in current position: _____ Years in the classroom: _____

Partner applicant (if applicable) _____

School _____

School Address _____

Town _____ STATE _____ ZIP _____

School Telephone: _____ Home Phone: _____

E-Mail: _____

* We will use e-mail as the primary method of communication. If you don't check your e-mail often, please note this and provide a home address if this is more efficient than using your school address.

Will you stay overnight at the College during the institute? _____

Professional Development Goals: (please answer on the back of this sheet or on a separate sheet, be as specific as you – for example if you have an Individual Professional Development Plan, tell us how this institute would fit in with those goals)

In what ways do you presently incorporate geography and geographical ideas into your teaching?

In what ways is geography evident in the current curriculum of your school/district?

Briefly describe how attending “The Importance of Being Geographic” will support your professional goals.

Return Application to

SCOTT ROPER
Professor of Geography
Leavenworth Hall
Castleton State College
Castleton, VT 05735